

Washington Archives Management began a relationship with Suzanne Hoonan in 2007 to help us with the challenges that happen within the personal dynamics in a family owned business. The coaching techniques she used in combination with the personality profiling has enabled Washington Archives to get the right people in the rights spots. Suzanne has helped us with strategic planning as well as sales training and presentation development. She has created great value here and we treasure her contribution to our success.

Mark Naubert

President | Allwest Transportation Inc. | Washington Archives Management